TANGENT POINTS

(Hebrews 4:15-16, Philippians 3:10-11, 2 Corinthians 5:21)

- 1) Last Sunday we learned about God's heart to pursue those who are lost. Over the past week, how have you sought to pursue someone and share the story of God's grace with them?
- 2) Read Hebrews 4:15-16. What does this passage say about what Jesus has done for us? What should our response be in regards to these great lengths that Jesus has gone to for us?
- 3) As a group, share with each other a time where you felt alone or misunderstood. How can Christ's actions affect how you view that situation?
- 4) Read 2 Corinthians 5:21. What does this passage reveal about what Christ has done on our behalf? What does this reveal about our identity?
- 5) The message of the gospel is through Christ's death and resurrection, we receive the righteousness of Christ. How should knowing that you have been made righteous affect your daily walk with God?
- 6) This week we learned that God has gone to tremendous lengths to relate to us, so that we can relate to Him. Set aside time this week to reflect on the days leading up to Jesus' death and resurrection. As you do so, think through the following: Is there shame or guilt you carry that is holding you back from intimacy with God? Will you make the decision to lay this aside and confidently draw near to God's throne of grace?
